TENNESSEE STATE PARKS DAVID CROCKETT STATE PARK

David Crockett State Park

was dedicated in 1959, in honor of one of Tennessee's most famous native sons. It is a 1,100-acre state park where whitetail deer and wild turkeys can be easily viewed as you drive through the park.

Historical significance

David Crockett—pioneer, soldier, politician, industrialist, legislator, statesman, patriot and hero established a diversified industry consisting of a powder mill, gristmill and a distillery along the bank of Shoal Creek in what is now his namesake park. All three operations were washed away in a flood in 1821. Crockett died at the Alamo Mission in 1836, while aiding the Texans in their fight for independence from Mexico.
